

M.A. in

International Migration Studies

- Learn about international migration from top migration faculty throughout CUNY in disciplines including Sociology, Political Science, Urban Studies, Anthropology, English, History, Public Policy, Psychology, and more.

- This multidisciplinary master's program is the only one of its kind on the East Coast.

- As a public institution, we offer a world-class education at the fraction of the cost of other universities.

- The curriculum is 30 credits. Four foundational courses cover international migration, global immigrant cities, research methods in international migration, and migration policy. Students specialize in a range of areas through electives. They will complete the program with an individual capstone project.

- Graduates are set to excel in advocacy, policy-making, social services, education, human resources, and labor management. The program is also excellent preparation for doctoral study.

- All applicants for all master's programs at The Graduate Center will be considered automatically for Dean's Merit Scholarships. For more information, see www.gc.cuny.edu/mascholarships.
