Hi Scott --
The homepage of the CAC currently links to a Frequently Asked Questions page. The link goes to the codex -- https://codex.commonscs.cuny.edu/
Is that codex still updated?

Hi Matt - No, we are not using the codex anymore. I think the button should point to this page: <https://help.commonscs.cuny.edu/frequently-asked-questions-when-getting-started-with-the-commonscs/>

Hi Boone -- please take a look at this ticket. Where is that info on the homepage set pre/post login? I looked at the dashboard but didn't see it among the widgets

- Status changed from Assigned to Staged for Production Release
- Target version set to 1.14.5

The link is hardcoded. I've changed it in <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commonscs/cac/commit/d7f97ed9fa4d6c318ac59cacbdfd4fe2bc452738> and it'll be part of the next release.

Thank you. Did you change it for both the pre and post login states?

I only changed the one from the screenshot. In <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commonscs/cac/commit/91b851b173ac93b2a672cd99c692af9d2d06fafc> I've replaced all instances of the codex URL - I think that this covers it.
