History

User Katherine Pradt reports: "I lost a Commons site! I had made a site for a presentation to some library fellows on 1/13/19. Today I visited the link, and the site's gone. Pages I created, media I uploaded, it's all vanished. I've now just got placeholder text and a site title, as if I'd just initiated the site. URL in question: <https://kpradt.commonsc.gc.cuny.edu/>"

This appears to be part of the incident described in #10997. I've restored the site from a backup just before that event.
