Description
Hello, Scott discovered a Add A Doc button (see attached) in the Commons profile when you go to the page showing docs that you either started or edited. We're thinking we can probably just remove that.

Sure, I've removed it in <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commons/cac/commit/ef80f5eb6b00fdb03e06e93d602d3c814c845d34>.

Maybe we want to remove this menu item altogether? This is the only place where we are continuing to show the old Docs list. Doesn't matter to me either way.

I'll ask Scott, but I'm thinking it might be ok to leave it for now. There might still be some utility for older or power users.

That seems good to me. Let's close this out.
