| Description Can you make one tiny update to this page = https://dev.commonsgc.cuny.edu/hosting-partner-handbook/#plugin-and-theme-requests? It now says "Hosting partners should contact the Commons team by email at commons@gc.cuny.edu to request the creation of an account on our Redmine installation" I'd prefer them to write to support@cunycommons.zendesk.com . At this point, commons@gc.cuny.edu is filled with junk. | |
