Description

Right now, I think one has to enter the editing screen of a single doc to delete it. I'd say that one should be able to delete a doc from the docs home screen -- "delete" should appear under the doc name on mouseover ("read | edit | history" appear there now). And you might think about a select-all checkbox that would allow one to delete all docs similar to what appears on the WP dashboard when one looks at the listing of the posts on a blog.

Feel free to ignore if you disagree!

These are both good suggestions. I'm going to open a separate ticket for the bulk actions request, as it's more complicated.

Just opened a corresponding ticket on the BuddyPress Docs tracker: <https://github.com/boonebgorges/buddypress-docs/issues/155>
