Description
Canvas is the basic Woo theme, and it's used a lot on the Commons, by us (News blog, Codex, Help and Support) and by others. The updated version is now responsive. I think it would be great to have more responsive themes for our users, and maybe this is a good start. Can we upgrade?

Nice thought, Scott. I think we might have to wait a bit on this one, as our WooThemes membership isn't current and we don't have our budget yet. But soon, I hope.

Boone,

What's the story with our Woo membership? Still on hold for budgetary reasons?

#4 - 2012-10-03 04:59 PM - Matt Gold

Still on hold for budgetary reasons?

Yes. Still waiting for budget to arrive. I've been told to expect it in the next few weeks.

#5 - 2012-10-03 05:04 PM - Dominic Giglio

Understood, we'll just keep punting this till the funds come through.

Matt,

There have been some purchases lately for both premium plugins and themes. I assume this means a budget has come through?

Can we get this theme purchased for Scott? Or are there other Woo-related issues that still need to be worked out?

#12 - 2012-12-01 03:06 PM - Matt Gold

Yes, we'll put in a request and aim to have this in place for the next release.

Matt,

Has there been any word on using some of the budget money to renew our WooThemes subscription so we can update this theme for Scott?

Yes, sorry -- I think I submitted the paperwork for this but may need to follow up on it. Thanks for the bump.

Matt,

I'm bumping this to 1.5.4 for now, but I'm wondering if we should close this in favor of wrapping it into the larger theme audit issue? I'm not sure what we're doing about all of our premium themes yet, but if we're going to remove some and upgrade the others this theme would obviously be included in one of those two groups.

Let me know what you think.

Can we try to get these Woo Themes tickets into the next release? We now have access to all of the themes. Thank you.

#56 - 2014-02-20 11:27 PM - Dominic Giglio

Definitely. I plan on having more old themes removed and WooThemes upgraded for the next release.

#57 - 2014-02-20 11:32 PM - Matt Gold

Great - thanks, Dom. There are a few other Woo-related tickets rolling around.

#58 - 2014-02-20 11:34 PM - Dominic Giglio

Yup, off the top of my head Scott and I have a header issue to look into. Which I believe is partly being held up because that site needs a WooUpgrade. I'll lump them all together and update the Theme Cleanup ticket and try to hit as many Woolssues as possible, all for the next release.

Per our email conversation, let's try to get this into the next release. Thank you!

#61 - 2014-03-01 07:22 PM - Dominic Giglio

Totally dropped the ball on this one, sorry about that. I kept putting it off because I assumed it would be simple (and the startup is kicking my butt right now). Then 2/28 turned into 3/1 and I completely missed the release. I am working on this now (as I said in the email to Boone) so that there is no way it won't be in the next release.

And thanks for adding the due dates to the other associated tickets for me.

#62 - 2014-03-11 11:44 AM - Dominic Giglio

Boone,

I've updated the canvas theme to the latest 5.0.6. Let me know when 1.5.20 has been released and I'll start checking all the sites referenced in this ticket and a few others to make sure there aren't any issues.

I've also added a reminder to ACTION_REQUIRED
