| Hi -- Would it be possible to install the free plugin "Quick Page Post Redirect" for the AC? It would allow me to use pages in the slider on the two Provost-related sites I'm working on. I've had success with this plugin in the past. It is found here: http://www.fischercreativemedia.com/plugins/quick-page-post-redirect-plugin | | | |

Hi Erin,

Is this plugin on the WordPress plugin repository? If so, please send us a link. If not, please be advised that following some bad experiences (non-repo plugins that had major security lapses) we are very reluctant to upload plugins to the Commons that are not shared with the WP community through the repository.

Hi Matt -- Good point! Yes, it does seem to be in their repository. I should have sent you the WP link:

Looks good. Added in <https://github.com/castiron/cac/commit/a3998c694df75ed1f6a9283f3d27f5f907d9b9ff>

Erin, the plugin will be available later today, when the next release is live.
