| Description Hi Scott, Can you put together some documentation on creating homepage slides for CBOX. The default slide when one installs tells people to add a slide, but it's hard to figure out how/where to do it. We should probably edit that homepage slide, too. Documentation should include a discussion of "Site Features," how to set an image on the slide, the fact that images are best sized at 635x345, the fact that slides can't currently have embedded video. It should also discuss the options in the CBOX options for adjusting speed/transition of the slide images. | |

History

This is an old one - can you mark as resolved, since I don't have access? Thanks.
