Description
Previous title: Spam on CBOX?
Hi Boone
A user just shared a zip file on CBOX: http://commonsinbox.org/groups/ciab-pioneers/forum/topic/eye-catching-thing/#post-1774
1. do you think this is spam?
2. we shouldn't allow zip files!

I don't think it's spam. The zip contains this library http://www.dynamicdrive.com/style/csslibrary/item/css_3d_flip/, and it looks like the author is just looking for help integrating it into his site (though in a very spam-like way).

You are correct that we probably shouldn't be allowing .zip attachments. I don't see any obvious way to change allow filetypes at a glance. I'll look more into it as soon as I can.

- Subject changed from Spam on CBOX? to Prevent .zip attachments from being added to cbox.org
- Description updated

Cool -- thanks, Boone. Glad to hear it's not spam. Changing the title to reflect the focus of the ticket

In <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commons/commonsinbox-org/commit/0ec3cd8cff0ade4e130214f3e27d8b61b62f9a81>, I blacklist a number of zip formats from being uploaded by non-admins. Deployed to production.
