Description FYI, I have a design question for our designer -- I'm wondering whether we should get rid of the white space between the top menu and the profile header (it disappears on scroll down when the profile header shrinks). He's not on redmine, so I'll ask him via email and report back.

Too late to make substantive changes for 1.7. Matt, I'm moving to 1.8 preliminarily, but if you have already reached out to the designer, feel free to close the ticket or reassign as appropriate.

1.8 is fine. Thanks.

Let's fold this into #2881, which might be part of a larger redesign.
