Description
Boone,
In keeping with our conversations about handling plugin updates for the Commons, I've created a topic branch in my local env where I've updated the plugins identified on the 5th as having minor updates available. Here is the list:
NextGEN Gallery WPtouch Mobile Plugin xili-language xili-xl-bbp-addon
As soon as you tell me that you are OK with these updates being included in tomorrow's release I will merge that branch and push up the changes.
I will also have an update for you later tonight on the new CAC Plugin Updates plugin I've been working on.

Looks good. Thanks, Dom.

Awesome. I'll merge these updates into 1.5.x along with the first pass at my plugin updates plugin so we can have a look at it as soon as you release tomorrow.

The first version will be ineffectual. It will merely display the plugins to make sure I've got the structure down and then you and I can discuss what features we actually want/need. I'd rather not add a bunch of stuff right from the start (that we may not even want) because that would just be a waste of time.

I will update the existing ticket (#2131) with some specifics when I push the code up.

I've merged the branch with plugin updates into 1.5.x and they will be pushed up in a little bit when I push up the rest of the stuff I've been working on.
