Description
We had a spam post on the the cbox site last night. I deleted the user and marked the post as spam, but I noticed that when I followed the post URL that had been provided in the notification email, the page I came to had a broken layout. Please see the attached screenshot. Here's the URL I went to: http://commonsinabox.org/groups/help-support/forum/topic/essential-taking-items-and-practical-techniques-for-household-possession/s/

This is due to a bug in bbPress: <https://bbpress.trac.wordpress.org/ticket/2595> Hopefully it will be fixed in the next version.

Until then, I have put a hotfix on commonsinabox.org.
