

CUNY Academic Commons - Feature #4052

Add room number field for events

2015-05-12 09:16 AM - Boone Gorges

Priority name:	Normal	Due date:
Assignee:	Boone Gorges	% Done:	0%
Category name:	Events	Estimated time:	0.00 hour
Target version:	1.10
Description
Where should it go? If it's part of Venue, then we'll have different venues for each room number. So, presumably, separate.
Assigning to Sam for suggestions.

Yes, as long as we keep the auto-fill/dropdown for the building addresses it should be separate. Such as:

Venue: (auto-fill/dropdown for building address)

Room: (open-text field)

See attached for a proposed layout.

I originally thought the text field should be titled "Room number", but an event could take place in an auditorium or other space that doesn't have a room number assigned to it.

Thanks, Sam. This seems good to me. Is it worth having an "optional" label on Venue and Room?

Currently, all of the fields are technically optional, so I don't think there's any need to state that these are.

We may want to consider making some fields required so that people aren't posting blank or partially-entered events (though blank events that are published don't appear in the calendar), in which case anything optional should be labeled as such.

Moving the assignment of this from me back to Boone.

Boone -- let me know if you need any more input from me here.

- Target version changed from Future release to 1.10

Cool, let's do this for 2.0. It should be an easy win.

This is ready to test on cdev. See <http://cdev.gc.cuny.edu/members/boonebgorges/events/kegger/>

The relevant changeset is <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commons/bp-event-organiser/commit/35adce69311a6fc0011193eb2138daccaa4f73d3>, though I had to make a hotfix to event-organiser to make it work on CAC. I've opened a PR so that this hotfix can be deprecated with the next version of EO. <https://github.com/stephenharris/Event-Organiser/pull/350>

Thanks, Boone! I tested it out and the room functionality works great.

The map was acting weird though -- when I chose the Graduate Center from the dropdown it dropped a pin in some random place in the middle of an ocean (screenshot attached). Not sure if this is a cdev bug or related to the changes you made, but I figure it's of note.

Thanks, Sam!

Yeah, the bad GC address is a data-related bug that I introduced to cdev when doing some testing there. Ignore it :)
