Description
BP has had autocompletion for @-mentions built in for a couple of releases, but I think we don't inherit it because we're running a bp-default child theme. Ray, could you look into how hard it is to port over?

Hi Ray - If this is an easy win, let's do it, but please feel free to punt.

- Status changed from Assigned to Resolved

Fixed.

Had to do two things:

- Ensure that the at-mentions JS is loaded on group forum pages (commit 2f4a220).
- Tell TinyMCE about BP's at-mention autocomplete script (commit 6d47706).
