| We are publishing an article that would include an embedded iframe of the following HTML document (http://www.shawnaross.com/jitp/). In the past we have been able to host a version of the HTML document on GC servers and receive a custom shortcode to allow for the iframe. We'd like to do this again. | | | |

Hi Kimon - I've just implemented this.

The files (HTML page + mla-tweets.xlsx) will be served locally. The URL for the content is <http://commons.gc.cuny.edu/wp-content/static/JITP-Shawna-Ross/> and <http://commons.gc.cuny.edu/wp-content/static/JITP-Shawna-Ross/mla-tweets.xlsx>

The shortcode for embedding via iframe is:

```
[shawnaross-jitp width="800" height="600"]
```

Adjust the size as needed.

Everything will be live and ready to be used within the next hour or so.

Let me know if you have any problems!

- File index.html added

Boone,

There were some layout problems within the iframe once we staged it on the JITP dev site that had to do with the CSS of the internal HTML. We have new HTML from the article author. Could you swap out the old file with this one? Thanks.

Sure. The file is updated in <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commons/cac/commit/fd8e43cd1ca1acce347f0ec3bdf299dd8b0a08b6> and will be deployed as part of our release on the 11th.
