Description

User Ned Benton writes:

"I want to upload and use a theme that is not currently available on the commons, but for which I own a license. I would not want to make it generally available as the license does not provide for that. The theme is Bavota magazine Pro and I have the license and the files.

Is this possible? Thanks!

Hi Marilyn - We can definitely do this. I'll need the theme files, as well as the URL of the site where the theme should be enabled.

Here's the zipped files, and just asked for the URL
