Description
I met with some Philanthropy Fellows today. Can we see why https://cpcs.commons.gc.cuny.edu is not showing up in the list of sites? It is a public site, but searches don't seem to find it.

It's showing up in our local search: <https://commons.gc.cuny.edu/sites/?s=philanthropy>

It's not showing up in Google-powered search, which I assume is what this ticket is meant to report. It looks like the site is fairly new, and perhaps hasn't been indexed at all by Google yet. See https://www.google.com/?gws_rd=ssl#q=site:cpcs.commons.gc.cuny.edu.

I just submitted a request to have Google index the site for the first time. Let's leave this ticket open for a few days to see if results change.

Looks like the site is now being indexed:
