Description

Hi,

I'm moving my personal site to another host with my own WordPress multi site installation, so I'd like to unpark the domain plhebert.com from my Commons site plhebert.commons.cuny.edu.

Thank you,
Paul

Done. <https://plhebert.commons.gc.cuny.edu> can now be accessed at that URL. I've left the passive mapping in place, so that it'll continue to resolve if you point <http://plhebert.com> at the Commons site until your new site is ready (though it appears you've already made the DNS changes).
