Looks like this was introduced as part of the fix in #9003, which broke topic editing for non-super-admins.

This should be fixed by <https://github.com/cuny-academic-commons/cac/commit/03e01661f61bda9a24df29c04bfb01e6a7651d75>. Because it required some debugging on the production site, the fix is already in place there, and George should be able to edit now. Please send my apologies.

George confirms that it works and graciously adds "No need for apologies, BTW – except maybe from my end."

Thanks for confirming!
