Hi Raffi,

Boone, who usually implements these requests, is away until mid-April.

I'm not too familiar with how cuny.is works, but I've seen Luke tend to a similar request in the past so I've added him as a watcher.

I've set up a redirect from cuny.is/streams to the requested URL... assuming that's what you wanted, @Raffi, rather than a domain map?

I was just about to help out with this (not sure how I missed the original request, very sorry), but it seems the page you want to point to is a 404? https://khatchad.commons.gc.cuny.edu/portfolio/safe-and-efficient-refactoring-for-intelligent-parallelization-of-java-8-streams

Thanks, Luke! Yes, that is what I was looking for.

No problem, Marilyn. I wasn't in a rush. Yes, that's intended. The page is private right now; I'll make it public later. Thanks again!
